

Every Great Success Story has One Thing in Common ...

Greg Norman, Pete Sampras, Bill Gates and every other great success story includes advisors and coaches. Here's how you can profit from our Mentoring experience ...

Throughout school you had teachers and lecturers to help you through your problems. As an employee you could always turn to your boss, or supervisor. But as a business owner, where do you turn when things are not working out exactly as you planned ... ?

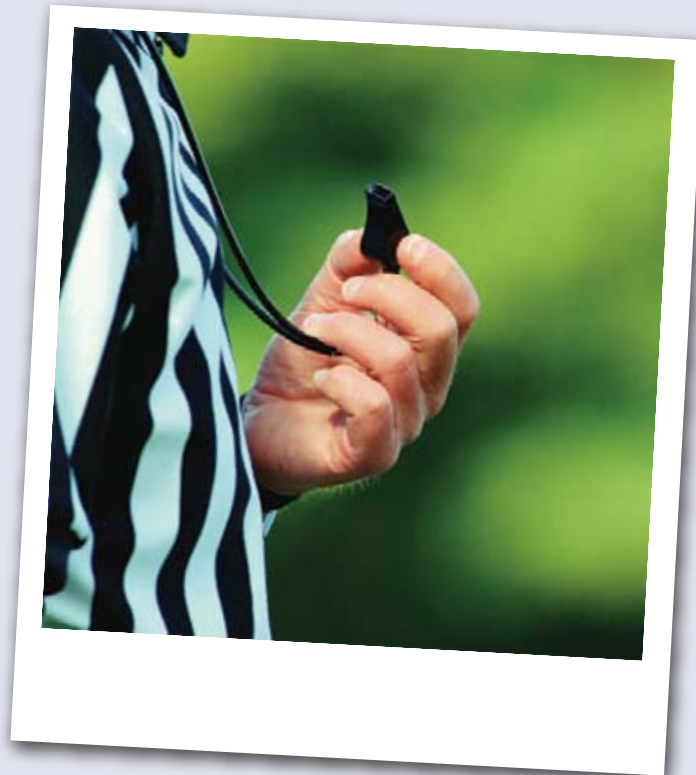

Whether you're sinking under the stress of running your business, or simply wish to fast track your success, the ActionCOACH Business Mentor Program is a must.

Action Business Coaches are trained to be the best of the best. Hand picked and personally trained by marketing guru Brad Sugars, each coach has a wealth of experience ready to pass onto you and the people in your business.

You'll not only get the benefit of their knowledge and advice, but you'll be kept on track and they'll be there to make sure you succeed.

Joining our mentor program is like getting a marketing manager, business consultant, training co-ordinator, sales manager, focus coach and so much more for half the price of a secretary.

Coaching is the perfect way to make sure you get your business flying. And, for around just $1,000 a month, you're tapping into the ultimate in business leverage.

See, our coaches have worked with hundreds of businesses in everything from retail to manufacturing, service to supply. Like the tree surgeon who increased his profits by 31% in just two months, or the television repairer who increased his conversion rate by 68% in just one month and now no longer needs to work in his business.

Just imagine having your business systematized to the point where you no longer have to work in it. Our 12 month Mentor Program will get you there fast.

Each month you'll be given new marketing strategies and systems designed to get your business flying. This program is a must for anyone interested in making their business profitable.

So contact ActionCOACH and get your business on the fast track to success TODAY.
